

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

GO-WV has two member classifications

GO-WV has two member classifications, Member and Associate.

Member. Any employer that is primarily engaged in the exploration, drilling, production, well servicing, gathering, processing, marketing, transportation, storage or distribution of oil, natural gas and/or NGLs, with operations in West Virginia and those employers that are significantly and directly involved in the West Virginia oil and gas industry and provide services, machinery, supplies and materials directly used or consumed in those activities, shall be eligible to become a “Member” of the Association.

Associate. Any individual or business that is engaged in providing ancillary services or activities related to or supportive of the oil and/or natural gas industry not covered by subsection (a) or who otherwise does not qualify as a Voting Member, shall be eligible to become an “Associate Member” of the Association. Associates shall not have voting rights but shall be entitled to receive all Association membership communications and to participate in all Association meetings and events.

Only those who have significant involvement in the natural gas and oil industry in West Virginia, are employers and are approved for membership by the GO-WV Board of Directors are admitted as Members. Generally, an “employer” employs employees and: (1) has the power to hire and fire; (2) supervises and controls work schedules or conditions of employment; (3) determines the rate and method of payment; and (4) maintains employment records. Generally, an employer withholds taxes and social security payments from salaries or wages, and submits W-2 forms.

Although you may not be significantly tied to the industry or be an employer at this time, we welcome you to join with GO-WV as an Associate. If you check “no” to any of the qualifying questions below, you will be considered for approval as a GO-WV Associate.

If you choose not to pay online, please mail your dues check to: GO-WV, 300 Summers Street, Suite 820, Charleston, WV 25301. Call 304.344.9867 with questions.
